

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

Explanation of terms

Event participants

Participants, programme contributors and external media representatives of the ClimateCoAction Summit (hereinafter referred to as "Summit") are hereinafter referred to as "event participant".

Organiser and responsables

The "organiser" of the ClimateCoAction Summit is the Youth Initiative of the Sustainability Strategy Baden-Württemberg. Europe Direct Stuttgart is the contentual cooperation partner of the event.

The team of Kommunikationsbüro Ulmer GmbH is responsible for the conceptualization and implementation of the Summit as an event within the framework of the Youth Initiative of the Sustainability Strategy Baden-Württemberg on behalf of and in consultation with the Ministry of the Environment, Climate Protection and the Energy Sector Baden-Württemberg.

Physical events

"Physical events" are events for which the event participants travel to or are present at one or more locations specified by the organiser.

Digital events

"Digital Events" are events to which the event participants connect via the virtual platform provided by the organiser in order to participate in the Summit.

Conclusion of contract and contractual services

§ 1 By registering for the Summit, the event participant is agreeing to comply with these terms and conditions.

§ 2 The contract is concluded between the user, the Youth Initiative of the Sustainability Strategy BW as the legal sponsor, and the individual event participant or his/her legal guardian. The team of Kommunikationsbüro Ulmer GmbH is commissioned by the Ministry of the Environment, Climate and Energy Baden-Wurttemberg to design and implement the ClimateCoAction Summit as part of the Youth Initiative of the Baden-Wurttemberg Sustainability Strategy in consultation with the Ministry.

§ 3 The event participants or their legal representatives undertake to comply with the rules laid down by the organiser of the Summit as well as the house rules and regulations in the premises used.

§ 4 Each event participant is responsible for ensuring sufficient insurance cover (in particular: liability insurance) during the Summit.

§ 5 By participating in the Summit, the event participant agrees to the hygiene concept of the event sent out in advance. Part of this concept is the acceptance of the rules and regulations of the Corona Ordinance applicable in Baden-Württemberg. Depending on the current Corona regulations, the right is reserved to make changes, of which all registered event participants will be informed by e-mail in due course. The event participant agrees to the use of his/her data up to 14 days after the event within the framework of the corona regulations. After this period, the data will be deleted and will not be passed on to third parties.

Participation and cancellation of participants

§ 6 The participant or his/her legal representatives agree to attend the entire conference (in particular from the beginning of the opening event until the end of the closing event. If this is not possible due to certain reasons, the organisational team must be informed 48 hours before the start of the event (exception: train delay or similar).

§ 7 The participant or his/her legal representatives agree to strive to participate constructively in the event.

§ 8 The participant is responsible for organising and paying for his/her own travel to and from the event as well as for any meals provided at the event. The legal representatives authorise this for participation.

§ 9 Under certain conditions, the reimbursement of travel and accommodation costs is possible (see "Conditions for reimbursement of travel costs ClimateCoAction Summit 19-20.11.2021 Stuttgart"). If "accommodation" is indicated in the registration form, the participant or his/her legal representatives agree to be contacted by our partner Milo Tadic Travel- und Eventservice for the purpose of processing the booking confirmation and for queries regarding the booking.

§ 10 Should the participant not be able to attend the Summit, this must be communicated immediately.

Participation of programme contributors

§ 11 All programme contributors should be present (physically or virtually depending on the format) at least 15 minutes before the respective programme contribution and report to the Summit organising team immediately if they are late.

§ 12 All programme contributors to a physical event should notify the organising team of any materials required at least 2 weeks before the event so that they can be available on site. Otherwise, there is no guarantee that the materials will be available.

§ 13 The programme contributor or his/her legal representative acknowledges that the amount of the allowance will be agreed with the organising team and will only be paid if the programme contribution is kept in full.

§ 14 If the programme contribution cannot take place, the programme contributor should inform the organisation team as soon as possible. The agreed allowance will not be paid if the programme does not take place.

§ 15 Travel and accommodation costs for a 2nd class train journey or comparable as well as an overnight stay in a single room in the Youth Hostel-International in Stuttgart-Mitte shall be reimbursed. Costs for travel by air will not be reimbursed.

Participation as an external media representative

§ 16 The media representative may only enter the conference premises or attend non-public parts of online events after registration / personal agreement.

§ 17 The media representative is obliged to register with the organisation team before taking photos, videos and making sound recordings.
Instructions and grounds for exclusion

§ 18 Instructions from members of the Summit organising team and the staff of the premises must be followed.

§ 19 Further rules at the Summit are:

- (1) No one will be injured - physically or psychologically - or put in unpleasant situations (during or in connection with the Summit);
- (2) Punctuality is required for all programme items;
- (3) Electronic devices are not to be used during any part of the programme unless instructed to do so;
- (4) Any house rules or other regulations of the premises in connection with the Summit must be observed.

§ 20 Refusal to comply with the instructions given in paragraphs 17 and 18 or failure to comply with the rules may be punished by exclusion from the event. The same exclusion may be imposed in the event of violations of rules leading to the orderly conduct of the event. The project management shall decide on the exclusion.

Limitations of liability and duty of supervision

§ 21 The organiser is liable within the scope of the legal regulations for intent and gross negligence of its members and the organisational team of the Summit during the Summit.

§ 22 Participation is on the participant's own responsibility and there is no duty of supervision by the members of the Summit organising team.

§ 23 The Summit organising team is not obliged to check whether participants are not allowed to take part in evening events for reasons of youth protection or whether an incorrect date of birth was given in the registration. The legal guardian authorises the underage participant to take part in all Summit events (see declaration of consent U18).

Data processing

§ 24 The organiser and the organisational team of the Summit undertake to comply with the legal provisions on data protection. These are regulated in our data protection declaration.

§ 25 By participating in digital events on the virtual platform provided by our technology service provider mu&te and using other functions made available there, the participant agrees to the necessary data processing.

Use of photographic, video and audio material

§ 26 By registering and participating in the Summit (including participants, programme contributors, members of the organising team as well as external media representatives and external service providers) or by entering the conference site, the participant agrees that photographic, video and audio material may be produced during the event. He/she also grants the necessary rights to publish and store these images, videos and sound recordings for the purposes of the Youth Initiative of the Baden-Württemberg Sustainability Strategy and Europe Direct Stuttgart, in particular for marketing purposes, on their website, the official social media channels (Facebook and Instagram), the YouTube channel (also possible as a livestream) and on promotional materials as well as on websites and social media channels of third parties (for example of external media representatives, guests, programme contributors, participants or team members of the Summit). This also applies if the event participant provides text contributions as well as photos, videos and sound recordings to the Summit organising team; in particular, the full rights to further use are thereby transferred.

§ 27 If consent to the use of photographic, video and audio material is not desired, the event participant or his/her legal representative must explicitly inform the organising team of this.

Revocation

§ 28 Consent to these GTC is voluntary. However, failure to give or revocation of consent cannot guarantee participation in the conference or other events. Consent may be revoked in whole or in part at any time. The revocation is only valid for the future. Photographs, films and sound recordings that have already been made, as well as print and digital media that have been produced and data that must be stored due to legal regulations, are excluded from the revocation.

§ 29 The revocation must be sent in writing to the following office:
Kommunikationsbüro Ulmer GmbH, Teckstr. 56, 70190 Stuttgart, Germany.
Final provisions

§ 30 Should individual provisions of these General Terms and Conditions be invalid, this shall not affect the validity of the other provisions. By registering for the event, the participant confirms that all information provided in the online registration form is true to the best of his/her knowledge and belief.
